CIRCLE C - “SELF-TITLED” !!!VINYL DEBUT!!!
‘90S ALT-ROCK MASTERPIECE UN-EARTHED AND PRESSED FOR THE FIRST TIME EVER! 500 PC LIMITED EDITION 12” VINYL!

Circle C rose from the ashes of critical darlings Slow, who made huge waves centered around intense and out of control live performances giving them the reputation as “Vancouver’s most notorious rock band.”The self-titled Circle C (AKA Copyright) full-length was originally released on Geffen Records and quickly vanished into the ether upon release, based on poor initial sales and reported band antics that didn’t endear them to label associates.

Lost to the sands of time until now, this epic recording will be celebrated on the occasion of its 35th Anniversary with a first ever vinyl release on Porterhouse. Circle C’s debut is broadly recognized by critics and fans as a “lost masterpiece” and “the most underrated rock album of all time,” and those fans are absolutely right..

Produced by John Porter (The Smiths, Roxy Music) the album is a sonic palate of thoughtful instrumentation and arrangement paired with stunning dynamics. Songwriting is top notch and it’s some of the best Canada has ever produced. This will be a very limited pressing and will mostly likely be the only time this record will ever be made available on vinyl.
