MODERNETTES - "VIEW FROM THE BOTTOM" E.P.
POWER-POP NUGGET UN-EARTHED AND RE-CREATED FROM SCRATCH LIMITED EDITION 12" RED VINYL 300 PRESSED - IN STORES NOW!

When the Modernettes released their sophomore E.P. in 1982 it was a departure from the brattier pop-punk sound they had mined on their stunning debut Teen City. View From The Bottom came from a different place and a different band. There's a maturity to the compositions and arrangements that didn't exist previous. Working closely with producer Nick Jones of Pointed Sticks the band recorded the majority of the record live off the studio floor. Carving out a sound that embraced Who-like power-pop they bridged that with dreamy deadpan on "Static" and an elegant and atmospheric take of the Velvet Underground's "Femme Fatale."

With artwork and master tapes lost long ago, it fell to Porterhouse to reclaim this title and re-create it from scratch. Audio was ripped directly from the original analogue vinyl pressings and then edited to remove pops and clicks. Original artwork was scanned and carefully corrected to use for print. A new lyric insert has been added to the package containing an historical foreword by band leader John (Buck Cherry) Armstrong, as well as never seen photos and a re-creation of the E.P.'s original black and white poster. We even included a download code for those who want to have the record available everywhere. In fact, View From The Bottom is now available for Streaming and Digital Download sale Worldwide from all the usual suspects. The EP streams 24/7 at the Porterhouse website and the 12" vinyl is available for sale at the link below.
